Profile

I am an avid traveler, author, and documentary maker with a passion for exploring different cultures and documenting my experiences. Over the past 10 years, I have traveled to more than 90 countries on 4 continents, immersing myself in the local customs and traditions of each destination.

In 2019, I embarked on an epic car journey from Iran to the Strait of Gibraltar in southern Spain, setting a new record for car travel in Iran. This incredible adventure spanned 110 days and was filled with captivating stories and memorable moments, which I have shared on my Instagram, in my books, and on my website.

I have published six books so far, including titles such as 'African Diamonds', 'Tehran to Vancouver', 'Eight Years Around the World', 'Ye Doone Vali Maradoone', 'Migration to Istanbul', and 'Eighty Days Around Europe'. These books chronicle my travels and offer insights into the diverse cultures and landscapes I have encountered.

My passion for tourism was ignited during my childhood and geography lessons, and it has remained a driving force in my life. My fluency in English enabled me to work in a hotel, where I interacted with travelers from around the world and further deepened my love for exploring new destinations.

As I continue my journey as a tourist, author, and documentary maker, I have recently launched my own website, www.BenyaminMarco.com. This platform serves as a hub for my travelogues, podcasts, videos, photos, and books, providing valuable resources and inspiring content for fellow travel enthusiasts. My goal is to share my knowledge and experiences, while also establishing my website as a trusted source of information for all travel lovers.
